1. Test-level summaries for Reading and Math provide class average Standard Score and National Percentile Rank (NPR) scores, as well as the percentage of students in leveled performance bands.

2. Domain-level summaries that provides the class percentage of students in low, mid, and high performance bands.

3. Tabular comparison of students with test and domain level scores.

4. All displays provide opportunities to interact with data including disaggregations, drilling down to isolate students in performance bands, searching, sorting, and filtering.