

Times and Seasons

Current Season

Students - Give students a forum to discuss, process, and even grieve their losses:

- Sports seasons
- Music performances
- Choir or band tours
- Drama productions
- Field trips and special events
- Prom or formal dances
- Graduation ceremonies and celebrations
- Other

Students – Give them a forum to discuss what they enjoyed about this time and would like to continue in the next season.

Students – Ask them to self-reflect on their role as a learner and make a plan for moving forward

Faculty – Give faculty a forum to discuss how they have changed in their practices and what they have learned about themselves, God, and their callings

Make connections for all using the Scripture with emphasis on the constancy of God

Coming Season

Help students, parents and faculty gain closure to this current time and move forward with hope into the next season

Review and revise (if necessary) the mission and vision of the school

Focus on the future, not the past:

- Enrollment practices
- Teaching practices
- Curriculum changes
- Professional development
- Other
