

1. Apple trees grow from tiny seeds found inside apples.

2. The seeds grow into seedlings. Many seedlings are eaten by animals or do not get enough water or sunlight.

3. The seedlings that survive grow into apple trees. Some apple trees grow apples in four years.

4. After about 20 years, an apple tree is fully grown.